

Dearest

What a year it has been since I last delivered your presents on Christmas Eve!

Although it's been a tough one you have been extraordinarily good this year and it hasn't gone unnoticed by myself, or my Robins.

Your big people and I would like to let you know how proud we all are of you, and we have agreed that such wonderful behaviour deserves an extra special Christmas present this year! That's why we have arranged for you to go on an exciting holiday to Bluestone from

I hope that you will have an incredible adventure at Bluestone and a lovely time celebrating Christmas today.

Merry Christmas to you all!
Lots of love,

Santa Claus

P.S. Thank you for the tasty treats that you left out for the reindeer and I – they were delicious!
